

A work of art that works for you

The sleek new Model 8570 Thermostat from Aprilaire does more than just look great. It also saves you time and money while making your home more comfortable.

Save Time: The large, backlit display combined with intuitive, plain language menus make this thermostat easy to use. It is pre-programmed with Energy Star® settings, and it automatically adjusts for daylight savings time. Plus, it lets you know when it's time for routine service on indoor air quality products – no more maintenance worries.

Save Money: Program your thermostat based on your lifestyle. Heat and cool your home only when it's needed. Use a 'set-back strategy' when you're sleeping or away from home to save energy – and money. Keep your system working at peak efficiency with intelligent service monitors.

Stay Comfortable: Enjoy the best indoor air comfort possible, every day of the year. Have the temperature you want when you want it. Monitor outdoor temperature and indoor relative humidity while getting the cleanest, purest air when installed with other Aprilaire products.

The U.S. Department of Energy recommends programmable thermostats to save up to 33% on heating and cooling bills.

Intelligence gives you the most comfortable indoor environment possible

The unparalleled style and beauty of this thermostat is matched by its easy-to-use and money-saving features. Have a work of art that works for you with the Model 8570 Thermostat from Aprilaire – the industry leader in indoor air quality solutions.

You will be able to manage your indoor environment like never before with precise temperature accuracy and comfort control. The Model 8570 Thermostat displays current time, date and outdoor temperature.

The Model 8570 Thermostat is among the best in its class, and it works even better when matched with other Aprilaire indoor air quality products.

- Working together with the Aprilaire Automatic Humidifier, you get an exclusive display of outdoor temperature and indoor relative humidity.
- Combined with the Aprilaire Intelligent Zoned Comfort Control system you get control over whole-home comfort at the touch of a button.

Save money by setting the holiday mode when you're away for longer periods of time. Plus, you can set the date and time of your return so your home is comfortable when you get back.

Maintain efficiency of your equipment with convenient on-screen reminders that tell you when and who to call to service your humidifier, change your filter or change your UV germicidal lamp.

Set heating/cooling schedules to fit your lifestyle with simple-to-use menu-driven programming. You can see the whole schedule at the same time, and you can even select the fan to be 'on' or 'auto' for any event.
